Dedication

This book is dedicated with profound love and gratitude to the pillars of my life:

To my beloved Parents, whose endless sacrifices, prayers, and unwavering belief in my potential have been the light guiding my path toward every achievement. Your support is the foundation upon which my dreams are built.

To my Siblings, for being my constant companions, my strength, and the source of motivation that keeps me moving forward.

And to Mohtrma, whose presence and encouragement have been a source of inspiration and grace throughout this journey.

This work is as much yours as it is mine.
